

we can now get what we need when we need it. the normal stations have been so bad for so long now they want the goverment to shore them up. the next thing they will want is to go back to tube radios.